

My husband and I are over the road truckdrivers and subscribe to xm-radio. During bad weather we can plan our routes by listening to the weather station. If we weren't allowed to have the xm-radio we wouldn't know the weather until we were in it and might either be stuck or worst yet be in an accident. Please don't let them change the programing. Thank you, Edward and Debra Shannon